SEDALIA, MISSOURI, TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 31, 1908.

VOL. 2, NO. 78. PRICE FIVE CENTS

WE MAY GET A FACTORY

WESTERN AUTOMOBILE MANUFACTURING CO. LOOKING OVER THE GROUND.

MANAGING DIRECTOR VISITS CITY

Pleased With the Outlook and Will Reach a Decision in the Premises in the Not Distant Future.

A. R. Walton, managing director of the Western Automobile Manufacturing Co., with headquarters in St. Louis, is in the city today in conference with J. W. Mellor, secretary of the Business Men's club, relative to establishing a branch factory of the company in Sedalia.

Mr. Walton came here at the solicitation of Mr. Mellor, with whom he has been in communication for two months. He has visited several other places with the same view, but of all the places yet visited, Sedalia strikes him as the most satisfactory point.

"I am greatly pleased with Sedalia, and will go west this afternoon and return here the latter part of the week to determine definitely," Mr. Walton said in conversation with a Democrat-Sentinel representative.

While here today Mr. Walton met several business men of the city and also viewed the David Wilson hotel property, just south of the new Missouri Pacific shops, which building will be secured, if possible, for the branch factory should the company decide to locate here.

The Western Automobile Manufacturing Co. is capitalized at $1,000,000 and is just branching out. The new plant to be established will employ at the opening 125 men, all high class mechanics who command good wages, and after two or three years' operation no fewer than 500 men would be employed.

"We don't want men who do not earn good wages," Mr. Walton continued, "for the higher the wages the better the mechanic, and we employ only the best, as we turn out the best quality and expect our work to be our advertisement."

Mr. Walton spoke very favorably of Sedalia and indicated that it was very likely the company would establish a plant here. While he has several other points to visit, unless those places are far superior to Sedalia it is not likely that any one of those cities will land the factory.

STEAK, 25 CENTS A POUND

Prices of Meats the Highest for the Past Twelve Years.

The prices of meat during the past few days have advanced to the highest stage known by local butchers during the last twelve years.

Wholesale meat houses now sell carcass beef at 10 cents a pound, having made an advance of four cents on the pound during the last few days. Pork has advanced three and one-half cents a pound and now sells for eleven cents a pound.

In order to meet the wholesale increase, local butchers are selling beef steak from 17½ cents a pound to 25 cents a pound.

The price of pork remains the same as during the past few days, the butchers expecting a decline in that line, and are still charging the same price, in spite of the wholesale dealers' advance.

GAVE HIM 120 DAYS IN JAIL

Then Kindly Stayed Five-Sixths of the Sentence.

Joseph Wiegand, son of the brewer, who was arrested in a West Main street saloon Saturday night for carrying concealed weapons, pleaded guilty in Judge Leaming's court today and was sentenced to one hundred and twenty days' confinement in the county jail.

One hundred days of the sentence was stayed on Wiegand's promise of good behavior.

WANTS EXPERTS NAMED

To Examine the Books of the Electric Boat Company.

Washington, March 31.—Investigation of the charge made by Representative Lilley against the Electric Boat company was resumed by the special house committee today. Officials of the Electric Boat company for whom subpoenas were issued were present. Mr. Lilley asked the appointment of experts to examine the books of the company.

Young Duncan Is Improving.

Kenneth Duncan, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Cook Duncan, who has been ill with inflammatory rheumatism for some time, is slowly improving at his home, 600 North Grand avenue.

Mr. Lovinger Not So Well.

Leopold Lovinger, who is laid up at his home with inflammatory rheumatism, is not so well today according to a report from his bedside this afternoon.

THE STRIKE TO SPREAD

GOULD LINES TO BE INVOLVED BY THE D. & W. TROUBLES.

STATEMENT BY MR. L. F. MOCKLER

Machinists, Boiler Makers and Blacksmiths West of Missouri River May Walk Out—Sympathy Move Shaping.

The Democrat-Sentinel was informed this afternoon that Master Mechanic McGraw has received not one word of information as to when the Missouri Pacific shops here will reopen. In connection with the local situation the following Denver dispatch of March 30 is of interest:

The Gould railroad west of the Missouri river must recognize union labor in their shops by tonight or their machinists, boilermakers and blacksmiths will go on strike, according to J. J. Mockler, second vice president of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths. A strike by these unions is in effect on the Denver & Rio Grande.

The men in the other Gould shops already have voted to strike, said Mockler, and they have only been restrained from going out by the union leaders. The Denver & Rio Grande engineers, trainmen and firemen are now considering a strike in sympathy with the shopmen.

MR. DENNY DROPPED DEAD

Interment Will Be in Green Ridge Cemetery Thursday.

Raphael Denny, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Pettis county, dropped dead at 9 o'clock this morning at his home, three miles southeast of Green Ridge, the result of death probably being from old age and heart failure.

Mr. Denny was born in St. Charles county, Mo., Dec. 19, 1821, and was 87 years old. He located on his present home many years ago, and has been a prominent citizen.

He was the father of County Engineer C. W. Denny and R. V. Denny, both of whom reside on farms in the same locality. He leaves besides the two sons his aged wife.

The funeral services will be held at the home at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, and the interment will be in the Green Ridge cemetery.

GOMEZ WAS RE-ELECTED

To Fill the Seat Vacated by His Recent Expulsion.

Manila, March 31.—Senor Gomez has been re-elected to the assembly from the First district of Manila, to fill the seat vacated by his recent expulsion from the house.

ANNA GOULD VERY ILL

She Is Suffering From Bronchitis and Stomach Trouble.

New York, March 31.—Miss Anna Gould is seriously ill at her apartments here with bronchitis and stomach trouble.

Mr. Beyerler to Appear.

E. J. Beyerler, the tragedian, will render several selections from Shylock at the open session of the students of Central Business college at the college auditorium Thursday night.

M. W. OF A. CONVENTION

IT WILL BE CALLED TO ORDER IN SEDALIA TOMORROW MORNING.

SIXTY-FIVE DELEGATES TO ATTEND

Purpose Is to Elect Three Delegates to the State Convention to Be Held at Carthage on the Eighth of May.

The annual county convention of the Modern Woodmen of America of Pettis county will be held in the hall over the Sedalia Drug company's store tomorrow. F. L. Ludemann, clerk of Russell camp, will call the meeting to order.

Sixty-five delegates will attend, eighteen of this number representing Russell camp, while six represent Sedalia camp. The remaining number represent the following camps of the county:

Beaman, Camp Branch, Dresden, Dunksburg, Green Ridge, Houstonia, Hughesville, Lamonte, Lookout, Manila, Smithton and Spring Fork.

The purpose of the convention is to elect three delegates to represent Pettis county at the state convention to be held in Carthage on May 8.

A committee of Russell camp is arranging to entertain the delegates. At the state convention an effort will be made to land the next state convention for Sedalia.

HELD ON A $500 BOND

Wordie Crockett, a Negro, by Judge Gresham Today.

Wordie Crockett, a notorious negro, was held to the criminal court on a $500 bond, which he was unable to furnish, by Judge H. M. Gresham, ex officio justice of the peace, this morning.

Late yesterday Crockett engaged in a fight with Sam Atkinson on West Main street. After brutally assaulting his victim, Crockett defied arrest at the hands of the constabulary and ran through an alley to the office of the Johns Lumber company, where he barricaded himself and defied Police Officer Robertson to enter the place, threatening to kill him if he did so.

Smashing in the door with the weight of his body, Officer Robertson thrust his left forearm into the room, and Crockett beat the member with a board that he held in his hands.

After shooting at the negro, Officer Robertson managed to gain entrance to the place and clubbed Crockett into submission. He was then taken to jail.

MINERS' SHORT SESSION

Adjourned at Kansas City This Morning Until Afternoon.

Kansas City, March 31.—After a short session this morning, during which it was announced that the committee appointed yesterday was not prepared to report, the interstate convention of United Mine Workers of America of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas adjourned till afternoon.

In the meantime 35,000 miners whose interests are involved are to quit work tonight.

WHOSE GLOVE IS THIS?

Found in a Grocery, After the Place Was Robbed.

Thieves entered J. H. Johnson's grocery and feed store, at 800 West Main street, some time last night, and stole two boxes of cigars, fifty pennies and fifty cents in stamens.

A rear window pane was smashed and the iron bars were bent.

The police were notified and are working on a clue, gained from a glove found in the place.

CEMETERY BOARD TO MEET

Will Select a Name From Nearly Three Hundred Submitted.

The members of the Sedalia City Cemetery association board, seven in number, will tonight decide on the name to be bestowed on the city cemetery.

Following the board's offer of a cash prize to the person suggesting the most suitable name, almost 300 names were presented by different residents of the city, and tonight all names will be submitted to the board and one name selected.

The different names are now in the hands of George K. Mackey, secretary of the board.

May Not Try the Case Again.

No time has been set for a second hearing of the charge preferred by Mrs. L. T. Perrell against Harold Smith, which case attracted considerable attention at the trial in Judge Rickman's court last Friday. Prosecutor Dow, who is to set the date for the second hearing, has not fully determined whether the case will be tried again.

IS READY TO RISK LIFE

FAT MAN WILL THROW HIMSELF IN FRONT OF A STREET CAR FENDER.

TEST IN ST. LOUIS THIS AFTERNOON

Seven Inventions Are to Be Given a Trial, but Only One Man Is Willing to Lay Down in Front of a Car.

St. Louis, Mo., March 31.—To demonstrate his faith in the safety fender he has invented, John T. Hodgins will throw himself in front of a speeding car this afternoon.

His feat will be the feature of a test of safety fenders arranged by the West End Business Men's association, at which seven inventions of St. Louisans will be thoroughly tested.

If one is found that meets all the requirements of the judging committee a bill will be framed at once for introduction in the city council, requiring the United Railways to equip all of its cars with the apparatus.

This is due to the great number of street car fatalities here.

"Dummies," made to represent men, women and children, have been purchased by the inventors and will be used in the experiments.

Hodgins, the only man who has consented to risk his life in the tests, weighs 240 pounds.

WILL WED THIS EVENING

Mr. Edgar C. Neighbors and Miss Ursula Estes.

Edgar C. Neighbors, driver for the Kansas City Oil company, and son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Neighbors, of 801 East Tenth street, and Miss Ursula Estes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Estes, of 922 East Thirteenth street, will be united in marriage by Rev. Clarke Baker, retired pastor of the Epworth M. E. church, at 8 o'clock tonight, the ceremony to be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents.

There will be no attendants, and the bridal couple will make their home at 608 East Twelfth street.

The Democrat-Sentinel extends congratulations.

FOUR FOR MR. FAIRBANKS

Delegates Assembling for Indiana Republican Convention.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 31.—Delegates to the Indiana republican convention which meets tomorrow afternoon began arriving in numbers today.

The convention will adopt a platform, nominate a state ticket, and elect four delegates to the national convention.

The delegates will be instructed for Fairbanks. The contest for the gubernatorial nomination is exciting.

DR. HILL GOES TO BERLIN

Nomination Made Today—Two Other Names to the Senate.

Washington, March 31.—The president today sent to the senate the nomination of David Jayne Hill to be ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to Germany.

He also named Arthur M. Beaupre, of Illinois, to be minister to the Netherlands and Luxemburg, and Spencer F. Eddy, of Illinois, to be minister to the Argentine republic.

HAD A MUSICAL TREAT

IT WAS GIVEN BY QUEEN CITY COUNCIL NO. 564, K. AND L. OF S., LAST NIGHT.

A VERY LARGE AUDIENCE PRESENT

After the Musical Numbers on the Program Had Been Disposed of, There Was Dancing—Refreshments Served.

The monthly social given by Queen City council No. 564, Knights and Ladies of Security, in the hall of the Royal Tribe of Joseph building last night, was replete with musical numbers that furnished a generous amount of amusement for the large crowd who braved the elements to be present.

The orchestral numbers were furnished by the Kroencke orchestra, the other numbers being furnished by little Miss Frances Clark and Master George Clark, in a duet, this being their first appearance, both doing credit to themselves.

Miss Lena Majors, who is fast gaining a place in the hearts of Sedalia people with her sweet voice, gave two numbers, to the delight of those present, after which she and Mr. Barker, of the National Cash Register Co., rendered two duet numbers which were so appreciated by the large audience that they were called for again by an applause that lasted five minutes. Miss Clutts, of the Aurora theater, also gave two very pretty songs.

A number that is new to Sedalia audiences was that of Mr. Arthur Payne, who appeared for the first time in his musical hit with the instrument known as "the rattlers." Mr. Payne is master of the instrument and succeeded in delighting his hearers with the inspiring music, and beyond question of a doubt in the very near future he will be entertaining audiences on some high class vaudeville circuit.

Dancing and card playing were indulged in during the remainder of the evening, and refreshments were served.

WHITE-STAPLES NUPTIALS

Popular Young Couple Married by the Rev. S. G. Welborn.

James D. White and Miss Bessie Staples were married at 7 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride in Lamonte, Rev. S. G. Welborn officiating.

Mr. White is the son of Dr. and Mrs. T. E. White, of Sedalia. He is extensively engaged in the livery business in Lamonte, and is a young man of business energy and very popular with all.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Staples, and is a favorite with all her acquaintances.

The wedding was a quiet one, the immediate relatives of the parties only being present, and was a surprise to all except a few. The newly married couple took the 7:40 train for Kansas City.

THE VENEZUELAN MUDDLE

Correspondence in the Matter Was Submitted to the Senate.

Washington, March 31.—The president today sent to the senate the Venezuelan correspondence called for by the Lodge resolution. This correspondence covers the history of five American claims which this government has so far, in vain, sought to have President Castro agree to arbitrate.

No suggestion or recommendation is made either by Mr. Roosevelt or Secretary Root in transmitting the correspondence to the senate.

HERE FOR SAFE KEEPING

Two Moniteau County Prisoners Were Brought Today.

Sheriff Wilson, of Morgan county, brought to this city this morning two prisoners, who broke jail recently at California, and who are now lodged in the Pettis county jail for safe keeping.

One of the men is Tom Keeney, awaiting trial in the Moniteau county criminal court on the charge of ravishing his daughter, Stella, while the other is Jap Hoover, an aged man, who was recently fined $300 for selling liquor in Morgan county, after the local option law had gone into effect.

Both men are Moniteau county prisoners and after being lodged in jail escaped. They were recaptured in Morgan county.

No Local Manager Yet.

C. B. Smith, district manager of the R. G. Dun Mercantile agency, with headquarters at St. Louis, will arrive here tomorrow on company business. Up to date no one has been named for the position of local manager, vice Joseph V. Holt, resigned.

May Be Colder Wednesday.

Probably showers tonight and Wednesday. Cooler Wednesday.

BRINGS A DIVORCE SUIT

THE WIFE OF A MINISTER WHO FORMERLY PREACHED AT ZANESVILLE, O.

HE LEFT THERE "UNDER A CLOUD"

Three Years Ago He Instituted Suit for $20,000 Libel, But Finally Withdrew It and Then Left for Baltimore.

Zanesville, O., March 31.—Almost three years to the day after Rev. F. W. Bope, then pastor of aristocratic St. James Episcopal church, left Zanesville following a sensational libel suit against W. A. Gibbs and a church trial, his wife, Marie Louise Bope, instituted suit for divorce. She charges absence only and asks for alimony and the custody of their minor child.

Bope was charged by Gibbs in a local newspaper three years ago with immoral conduct.

A $20,000 suit against Gibbs followed, which came to trial three years ago last month.

The trial was barely begun when the suit was suddenly withdrawn by Bope, and he quit his pulpit and the church as well, going to Baltimore, where he is now engaged in the newspaper business.

The name of a pretty and accomplished music teacher in this city at that time was prominently connected with the incident.

JUDGE McALLISTER DEAD

He Was a Son of the Famous Society Leader of New York.

San Rafael, Cal., March 31.—Judge Ward McAllister, son of the famous society leader of New York, died this morning at a local sanitarium from the effects of an operation for appendicitis.

He was United States Attorney for California from 1882 to 1894 and had received the presidential appointment of district judge in Alaska.

WANT AN ASPHALT PLANT

Meeting of Parties Interested to Be Held Tonight.

A private meeting of local capitalists and out-of-town promoters will be held in this city tonight to discuss the proposition of erecting an asphalt plant in Sedalia.

This is a preliminary meeting and further details cannot be given at present.

DRIVEN OUT BY A FIRE

Sixty Families Were the Victims in Chicago Today.

Chicago, March 31.—Sixty families were driven into the street today by a fire which destroyed a four-story brick apartment building on North Clark street.

Nearly a score of women were rescued by firemen. The property loss is $50,000.

'MORE MONEY FOR JAILS'

THIS IS THE DEMAND HEARD ON ALL SIDES IN FAR-OFF RUSSIAN EMPIRE.

AUTHORITIES AT THEIR WITS' END

Mortality in St. Petersburg's Prisons Becomes Alarming—Additional Soldiers Are Wanted Quite Badly.

St. Petersburg, March 31.—All the jails in St. Petersburg are so overtaxed the authorities are at their wits' end because of the increasing number of prisoners.

The minister of justice has asked for a greatly increased appropriation from the treasury, specifying that the money will be used to build new jails and enlarge the present ones.

Accompanying the plea for money is the statement that in quarters built for a maximum capacity of 107, 138 prisoners, there are housed at the present time 154,187 men, women and children.

Epidemic diseases are carrying off hundreds of prisoners. The mortality among the very young and the very old is appalling.

The minister of justice suggests that army barracks not now in use be turned into temporary jails.

The minister of war replies that more barracks are needed because more soldiers are required.

Meantime the peasants of the Volga and the upper waters on the Don are starving. The government announces that it cannot reach them with the necessities of life.

AFFECTS 30,000 MINERS

Will Quit Work Until the Wage Scale Is Settled.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 31.—At a meeting of miners and operators this afternoon it was decided that all the mines in the Pittsburg district would suspend at midnight tonight until the wage scale agreement had been reached.

Thirty thousand miners are affected.

DECIDES AGAINST STATE

In Maximum Freight and Two-Cent Fare Cases in Missouri.

Kansas City, Mo., March 31.—Judge Smith McPherson in the federal court here today decided that he has full jurisdiction over both the maximum freight rate and the two-cent passenger fare cases in Missouri.

In other words, he holds in favor of the railroads and against the state on the question of jurisdiction.

NOT QUIT WORK IN INDIANA

Will Continue at Labor Pending Settlement of Trouble.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 31.—It was agreed today by the joint conference of the Indiana mine owners and miners that the present wages shall continue after today, pending a settlement of the scale.

This means there will be no suspension in this state tomorrow.

THREE BURNED TO DEATH

Children Lost Their Lives While Mother Went to Butcher Shop.

Scranton, Pa., March 31.—Locked in their home at Hughestown today, while their mother, Mrs. Dominick Jimillo, went to a butchershop, the house caught fire and three small children burned to death.

Old Manager to Return.

F. H. Bailey, manager of the Aurora theater on East Third street, has been transferred to the theater belonging to the Lyons circuit at Topeka, Kan., and, accompanied by his family, will leave for that place within a few days.

Mr. Bailey's resignation here takes effect tonight, and F. L. Hoxie, former manager of the house, will arrive here from Kansas City tonight to assume the management of the theater.

A CARDINAL WAS SCORED

REV. FR. COFFEY TAKES ISSUE WITH FORMER'S STAND ON THE SALOONS.

AUDIENCE WAS SILENT AT CLOSE

Listeners Told That Sunday Lid and St. Louis Politics Are Jokes —Slap at the House of Delegate.

St. Louis, Mo., March 31.—Several hundred members of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of St. Louis and non-Catholics, at St. Leo's temperance hall, heard the Rev. Fr. James T. Coffey last night take issue with Cardinal Gibbons on the question of prohibition and urge the men of his parish not to look upon the high churchman's views as ex cathedra.

"The opinion of the cardinal in this instance," declared Fr. Coffey, "is that of Mr. Gibbons, the citizen. When he says that prohibition will cause more lawlessness than the saloons he is merely stating his personal views, and no Catholic is bound to harken to his advice on non-secular matters."

"I am surprised that he should have made such a statement, especially since he lives in a town that is as graft and saloon-ridden as St. Louis."

"Some Catholics may be under the impression that Cardinal Gibbons' words on the matter are from the church. They distinctly are not. We think for ourselves and no one can dictate our views of civic and sociological matters."

There was a visible stir in the audience at the remarks of the speaker. No applause greeted his words.

During the course of his extended remarks the militant churchman flayed the breweries, the house of delegates, members of the clergy, the legislature, the excise commissioner's office and some Catholics who are speaking in favor of the saloon. The German-American alliance and E. V. P. Schneiderhahn, the spokesman of the organization, were criticised.

"What the Breweries Have Done for St. Louis and What Prohibition Will Do" was the subject of Fr. Coffey's address.

"I would like to discuss the matter from the political aspect," said the speaker, "but I have never gone very deep in local politics. The surface was so dirty that it turned my stomach and I couldn't go any further."

"The saloons control the politics of the city and the politicians control the saloons, and the big breweries control both."

"City assemblies and legislative committees are bought like so many sheep."

"I know personally that the chairman of a committee in the legislature several years ago, to which most of the liquor legislation was referred, was owned body and soul by the St. Louis brewers."

"The house of delegates is composed in the main of saloon keepers. When they are under indictment who goes on their bonds—the saloon interests. Who pays the costs of the case? The breweries. Do you think any of them will be sent to the penitentiary? No, the breweries won't let them go."

"Besides the legislative bodies, the police and the judiciary have been bought by the brewers. Every police board has had a brewer or his man Friday on the board. Even the reform board we have now is not free from their influence."

"Our sacred lid is almost a joke. Saloons are run in all parts of the city Sunday, and policemen line up against the bar with the rest. It has been brought to me that the breweries pay patrolmen to encourage the lid lifters."

"The house of delegates has been filled with saloon money and the members of the combine walk over each other's feet in their haste after the nickles and dimes.

"The excise commissioner, I believe, is honest, but he has bad influences near. At any rate, every time I call brewery agents are there."

"The breweries are using the German-American alliance as a catspaw. Their cry of personal liberty is dictated in the office of the breweries."

"It is pathetic to see a good Catholic like Mr. Schneiderhahn preaching the gospel of the full booze-can and the wide open saloon. Worse than all are the ministers who are selling out to the devil at the rate of $100 a night to stomp through Illinois and show the farmer how the grace of God rests on the saloon."

"But with all their efforts it is too late. The brewers brought it on themselves. The cyclone is gaining headway, and no amount of money or repentance can save it off. Missouri will be dry in a decade, as dry as a bone. If a local option vote were taken today in St. Louis more than half the wards would go dry."

Fr. Coffey concluded by denying the statements of the brewers that one-third of the working population would be thrown out of employment by the closing of the industry.

HONORABLE HENRY LAMM

SEDALIA GENTLEMAN WHO IS ONE OF THE JUDGES OF SUPREME COURT.

PIE CONDEMNED FROM THE BENCH

Judge Lamm Quotes Shakespeare and Dickens in Deciding Cases—Affirms the Shylock Decision Entertainingly.

Judge Henry Lamm, of the Missouri supreme court, a judge of austere mien, has in his opinions abandoned to some extent the precedents established by the jurisprudence of America and England, and in some cases has gone to the works of Shakespeare and of Dickens in discussing cases before his court, says the Jefferson City Democrat.

Judge Lamm's opinions are filled with breezy epigrams, and there is more wit and humor in one of his opinions than is to be found in those of all the other judges combined.

Affirms Shylock Decision. In one of his recent opinions Judge Lamm took occasion to affirm the celebrated ounce-of-flesh and drop-of-blood case found in the "Merchant of Venice." This was in the case of George W. Baumhoff vs. the St. Louis and Kirkwood Railroad company, involving a very dry discussion of the ownership of some railroad stocks. But Judge Lamm says:

"Finally, it is said, arguendo, in the brief or the plaintiff's learned counsel, as follows: The substantive law in the case is found in the Decalogue (Exodus 20:15), to wit: 'Thou shalt not steal.' Replying to that contention, is argued, contra, in the brief of the defendant's counsel, that the foregoing interdiction is not in point here, but that an old case, decided by a pseudo judge, one Portia, reported in 'Merchant of Venice,' act 4, scene 1, is on all fours—a case known to the profession as the 'Pound-off-flesh-and-drop-of-blood case.'

Portia's Case is Cited. "So, too, the doctrine of Portia's case seems to be affixed, for, in the opinion handed down, as reported by Mr. Shakespeare, it was held that said pound could only pass to the plaintiff on a condition subsequent, viz., his 'land and goods are by the laws of Venice' if (much virtue in the if) in the cutting thereof by plaintiff 'one drop of Christian blood' was shed."

"Accordingly, observe that plaintiff in that case entered a remittur for the pound, in fact, suffered a non-suit, rather than face the loss of all his assets, real, personal and mixed, while here defendant concedes plaintiff the pound thereof, and says he has it. Is Portia's law law? We may answer that question in the phrase of the same learned reporter in another case (see Hamlet's case), is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

to wit, 'Ay marry ist; crown's quest law.'

The professional story teller will rejoice over Judge Lamm's ruling in the case of Story vs. Story (189 Mo. 111), wherein it was held that the fact that a man repeats over and over the same story does not render him per se an insane person.

Recounters Are Defended. "It would be a startling infringement," says Judge Lamm in this case, "on the gale of mankind to determine judicially that recounters (of any degree) must repeat their favorite stories only under the impending danger of being finally adjudged, not only guilty of intellectual stulteness, but of actual imbecility and consequent testamentary incapacity; or that an anxious grandfather may not call his truant grandson with an inflection of voice and a cadence of tone known to him to be effectual in producing the presence of the family watch dog, with out thereby furnishing legal evidence of mental aberration. In fine, this court seems committed to the proposition that where there is a will there is not always a way—to break it."

In the same case Judge Lamm expresses tenderly his feeling for the struggling lawyer, but holds that the court cannot decide cases on sentiment.

"In the consideration of this case we trust we have given proper weight to the argumentum ad hominem addressed to us ore tenus, and outside the record, by the earnest and eloquent counselor appearing for the respondents to the effect, (1) that it was his first case in this court, that (2) he had a contingent fee of respectable size in the final result (and needed the fee), and (3) that his clients, the daughters of testator were goaded by penury and like misfortune into earning a scant and hard-fought my manual labor in the fields of Stoddard county, and hence, he was anxious to win his case."

He is Sorry, But— "Avowing a natural sympathy for the persuasive conditions indicated, yet it would seem that we are wisely precluded from giving any consideration to aught but the law of a case, and of the application of the law to the old record facts. Hence we must gently but firmly decline to follow the attractive leaf suggested by respondents' counsel."

In discussing a ruling of a lower court in Morrison vs. Tumbaugh (192 Mo. 144), Judge Lamm finds occasion to go to Dickens' "Pickwick Papers:" "Witness the impassioned instance of Sergeant Buzfuz (ore tempus), in the cause celebre of Bardell vs. Pickwick, before Starleigh, J., at Guildhall, wherein he, Buzfuz, as the reported case shows, construed Samuel Pickwick's homely message to Mrs. Bardell, viz: 'Garraways, 12 o'clock. Dear Mrs. B.—Chops and tomato sauce. Yours Pickwick,' and another, 'Dear Mrs. B.—I shall be home tomorrow. Slow coach. Don't trouble yourself about the warming pan' (we may be allowed to quote from memory), as ardent and inflammatory love letters or as trifling with the tender sensibilities of Widow Bardell. It is needless to say that the Bardell case had ever been appealed here on the same facts, we would have inclined to the holding that Buzfuz's construction of Mr. Pickwick's somewhat incoherent language was far-fetched and quite missed (by overshooting) the mark."

Judge Lamm does not like dried apple pie. He says so in his opinion in the case of Welch vs. Mann (193 Mo. 321):

"We do not understand (or hold) that said corporation made all the pies eaten in that great and hungry city, but we do understand from the evidence (and would be inclined to so hold, if necessary) that it had a monopoly in the making and selling of that sad and indigestible commodity known as commercial (as distinguished from political) pie—a commodity abounding in the marts of that town, it is said, and traffickees in for gain—a pie made of the Ben Davis apple (this is a pure hypothesis and hence obiter) split, dried and subjected to other forms of mysterious and unpalatable manipulation."

In discussing another case, improperly brought, Judge Lamm says: "We conceive such things to be beyond the pale of judicial function on such a bill as this, and we decline to assume the roll of Christopher Columbus—to embark for a voyage on an unknown sea of jurisprudence."

in hope of sighting land in some direction or other."

The judge gets epigrammatic in passing on the case of Dean vs. Railroad (199 Mo. 401):

"Two darks do not make one light any more than two wrongs make one right. Two doses of the same inaccuracy do not cure an ill in jurisprudence. In fact, it is believed to be only in medicine that like cures like (similia similibus curantur), and even on that the doctors disagree."

Remember that when the stomach nerves fail or weaken, Dyspepsia or Indigestion must always follow. But, strengthen these same weak inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and then see how quickly health will again return. Weak heart and kidney nerves can also be strengthened with the restorative, where heart pains, palpitation or kidney weakness is found. Don't drug the stomach, nor stimulate the heart or kidneys. That is wrong. Go to the cause of these ailments. Strengthen these weak inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and get well. A simple, single test will surely tell. W. E. Bard Drug Co.

SEDALIA THEATER.

"A Cowboy's Girl."

Thursday night's attraction at the Sedalia theater is Perce R. Benton's "A Cowboy's Girl." The play is of the popular western type and has received the appreciation of the masses. As a popular priced attraction the piece has been a winner. The western love story strain which runs through the entire piece is of the soul-stirring kind, and taking the performance as a whole, the evening spent will be an enjoyable one, and there is no doubt a large audience will see the western life of our people portrayed. Seats may be secured now.

"Little Johnny Jones."

"Little Johnny Jones," one of the best, if not the best, musical plays that have been contributed to the world by that clever author-actor-composer George M. Cohan, will come to the Sedalia theater Saturday, matinee and night.

The Paint You Can Be Sure of

The best paint of science and experience have been able to devise; the paint that looks best, covers most and lasts the longest is HUGHES' CRESCENT COTTAGE PAINT.

All of the materials used in it are subjected to analysis and these materials are then combined by the most modern machinery. This paint is guaranteed for five years and lasts ten years or more. Economy in painting depends not on the first cost of the material, but on the years that elapse before paint is again required. Judged by this test CRESCENT COTTAGE PAINT costs less than half as much as any of those that cost a little less per gallon. Sold and guaranteed by

WORK OF A JERSEY COW

BOVINE CHEWED THE PASTOR'S SHRUBBERY AT ALBANY, GEORGIA.

HIS WIFE AND NEIGHBORS FIGHT

An Arrest Followed, and Now the Incident Is the Talk of the Town
—The City Cow Should Be Kept in Barn.

Albany, Ga., March 31.—The congregation of the East Albany Methodist church has been torn into factions by the arrest of Mrs. A. P. Spillers, wife of the pastor, on a charge of having assaulted Mrs. D. W. Kirkman and the latter's son.

Mrs. Kirkman is the wife of one of the leading members of the church.

The preacher's residence and that of the Kirkmans adjoin. In some way Mrs. Kirkman's Jersey cow got loose and browsed on shrubbery on the parson's lawn.

Mrs. Spillers and Mrs. Kirkman both went after that cow and hot words arose. Soon there was an exchange of blows.

Mrs. Kirkman's 14-year-old son aided his mother, but the preacher's wife held her own and put Mrs. Kirkman and the boy to flight.

While the fight was in progress the cow destroyed a lot more shrubbery, and when Mrs. Spillers was arrested she was crying over her ruined lawn.

Mrs. T. B. Young, of 714 East Fourth street, Sedalia, Mo., says: "I can simply state that I owe my thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills on account of the relief I obtained from their use. For two or three years I suffered from dull aching and lameness in my back, extending at times clear to the top of my head, and often after stooping when I straightened up there would be a swimming in my head and a blurring of the eye-sight so severe that I could hardly stand. Doan's Kidney Pills procured at the W. E. Bard Drug Co. have given me greater relief from these troubles than any other medicine I ever used. It is a pleasure to recommend to others a remedy which proved of such great merit as yours did in my case."

That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants, before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases. If we would properly investigate them; and if we would put to use the medicinal powers of the white pine, the most valuable cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood purifier known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The relief it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Not less marvelous in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and distressing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of published testimonials contributed by the grateful patients who have been cured by it of catarrhal pelvic troubles, irregularities, prolapsus and other displacements caused by weakness, ulceration of uterus and kindred affections, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle wrapper.

WILL HAUL AWAY TRASH

Firm Willing to Do Hauling on Private Contract.

The civic department of the Sedalia Women's clubs and the Business Men's association, working together, have found that they can make a contract with Ball & Bosserman to haul away all trash, rubbish and refuse at 10 cents per week for each house where no cow or horse is kept and at 20 cents per week if a cow or horse is kept.

Ball & Bosserman agree to have the refuse in the alleys hauled away twice each week or as much oftener as is necessary.

If residents will put the trash in a box at the back of the house in the alley the driver of the wagon will dump the trash into the wagon and put the box back in the regular way.

If all the residents in the city will co-operate with the Women's clubs and the Business Men's association in this effort Sedalia will be an infinitely cleaner city.

How Sawfish Uses Its Saw.

More energetic than any other sharks are the sawfish, whose snouts are prolonged into a broad blade of cartilage, which is horizontal when the fish is swimming in a normal position and has both its edges set with slightly curved teeth about an inch apart. The end of this formidable looking weapon is blunt and comparatively soft, so that it is quite incapable of the feats popularly attributed to it of piercing whales' bodies, ships' timbers, etc. It attacks other fish by a swift lateral thrust of the saw beneath them. Then it feeds upon the soft entrails, which are apparently the only food it can eat from the peculiar shape of its mouth. It has an enormous number of small teeth, sometimes as many as 50 rows in one individual, but they are evidently unfit for the rough duties required of their teeth by the garbage-eating members of the family.—Fish Lore.

ACT ON ORCHARD'S CASE

IDAHO BOARD OF PARDONS TO CONSIDER THE MATTER TOMORROW.

IS THE SELF-CONFESSED ASSASSIN

There Is No Sure Thing That the Recommendation of Trial Judge Wood Will Not Be Acted Upon Favorably.

Boise, Id., March 31.—When Harry Orchard, self confessed assassin of twenty-one men, was sentenced to be hanged on May 15 by Judge Freeman Wood, the latter recommended that the sentence be modified to imprisonment.

This recommendation that the wholesale murderer be extended clemency was based on the belief of Judge Wood that Orchard had told the truth in the trials of Haywood and Pettibone, officers of the Western Federation of Miners, acquitted of complicity in the murder of ex Governor Steunenberg.

Tomorrow the board of pardons will meet to consider the Orchard case, and it is entirely likely that the recommendations of Judge Wood will be acted upon favorably.

The latest phase of the famous case which has made Idaho a center of international interest during the past year has provoked a great deal of comment.

During the progress of the Haywood trial and since that time labor men have openly declared that Orchard, blood-guilty though he has confessed himself to be, would never be made to pay the penalty for his crimes by the Idaho authorities.

For months western labor leaders in their papers and on the platform, have asserted that the plan was to have Orchard plead guilty, be sentenced to death, secure a commutation of sentence from the pardon board, and later, when the affair "blew over," be released or allowed to escape from the penitentiary and sent rejoicing on his way.

All but the latter part of this prophecy has now been fulfilled. It is declared that Orchard has been treated with marked favoritism by the prison authorities, has been provided with the luxuries he desired and has evaded the labor and discipline imposed upon other prisoners. "Governor Gooding's pet," he is alleged to be called by the inmates of the state prison.

These charges are denied in entirety by the state officials, from the governor down, who declare that Orchard has never been promised immunity and that it will never be given him.

People of Boise are divided in opinion as to whether Orchard was in reality the tool of the Western Federation, committing murders and other crimes at the behest of the inner circle, or whether his confession was wrung from him on promise of immunity, as part of a gigantic conspiracy to railroad the labor leaders to the gallows and "disrupt" the union.

The prayerful, pious, psalm-singing Orchard of today, compared with the ruthless assassin of yesterday, is an anomaly that no psychological investigator has yet been able to explain. Arch assassin or arch hypocrite—this is the question that no one has yet been able to answer.

If Orchard has told the truth about himself, this man who is considered a fit subject for the Idaho pardon board, committed or had guilty knowledge of the following crimes, in addition to the Steunenberg murder:

The blowing up of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mill in Idaho in 1899; the murder of Martin Gleason, manager of the Wild Horse mine, at Cripple Creek, Col., in 1901; the murder in 1901 of J. W. Barney, non union shift boss in the Smuggler Union mine at Telluride, Col.; the killing the next year of Wesley J. Smith, another non-union shift boss in the same mine, as well as the murder of Arthur L. Collins, manager; the murders of Superintendent McCormick and Foreman Beck, of the Vindicator mine of Victor, in 1903; in 1904 the blowing up of the railroad depot at Independence, by which fourteen men were killed; in 1905 the wrecking of the power house of the Colorado Springs Electric Co.; the hiring of a man to poison to death his former associate, Neville, because Neville suspected that Orchard was the man who caused the Independence explosion.

Orchard also confessed that he laid a bomb in the path of Chief Judge Gabbart, of Colorado, by which an innocent man was killed; that he hurled a bomb at the gate of the residence of Judge Goddard, of Denver, who escaped death by chance, and that he plotted the death of Governor Peabody, of Colorado, who several times was within a few inches of death. Bell, he said, also was the subject of several attempts. All of these crimes, he claimed, were inspired by Haywood and his associates.

Because of the many unsuccessful attempts that Orchard declared he made to assassinate certain men, the defense in the Haywood and Pettibone trials argued that his story was largely a fabrication, based on certain mysterious murders that had actually been committed, and worked up largely by James McPartland, the western manager of the Pinkerton detective agency, in order to convict the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners. There was no attempt made, however, to show that Orchard did not actually commit the Steunenberg murder, but evidence was introduced to show that he might have had a personal motive in that and acted in a spirit of revenge.

Although the defense failed to show clearly the counter conspiracy which it charged against the mine owners and state authorities, it was shown that the entire case against the labor leaders was worked up by Pinkerton detectives, following the confession of Orchard about four weeks after his arrest. The state authorities of Colorado worked in conjunction with the Idaho officials, and Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone were taken from Colorado in a manner which has been frequently criticized by many who were not in sympathy with the miners. The men were arrested in Denver late at night on Feb. 17, 1906. They were not allowed to communicate with their attorneys or given an opportunity to fight extradition.

WILL "STRIKE" TONIGHT

MINERS TO THE NUMBER OF 250,000 IN 13 STATES ARE TO QUIT WORK.

FORCE WAGE CONTRACT RENEWAL

Illinois, Indiana and Western Pennsylvania Factions in Session Trying to Agree—The Situation in Detail.

Indianapolis, March 31.—The union miners in most of the coal fields of the country will lay down their picks and shovels tonight. Almost 250,000 of them will stop work in Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas, Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and probably in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, West Virginia and Kentucky.

The mining contracts under which they are now working expire at midnight tonight, and except in Central Pennsylvania and in the Indiana block district, no contracts have been made, nor have the miners and operators yet entered into district agreements providing for the operation of the mines after April 1, pending agreement. This is a possibility in the Indiana bituminous coal district, in Illinois, Michigan and West Virginia.

The Indiana bituminous coal district, Western Pennsylvania and Illinois miners and operators are in joint sessions at Terre Haute, Pittsburg and Springfield.

Technically, the miners will go out on strike, but in reality they stop work because the operators, except in Indiana and Illinois, show no real intention of meeting and treating with them, though no question of wage or principle is at stake.

John Mitchell returned to headquarters here yesterday and is preparing to step out of office. Congressman W. E. Wilson is back from Central Pennsylvania, where he scored the first big success in the present situation by getting the Central Pennsylvania operators and miners into a wage agreement. That district will continue to work.

Vice President T. L. Lewis, who will succeed President Mitchell Wednesday, will announce his appointments when he takes office. It is understood that Samuel Sexton, editor of the United Mine Workers' Journal, is to be retired, and that possibly Chris Evans, the official statistician, may be succeeded by a new appointee.

Mr. Ryan, the new secretary-treasurer, will bring with him from Illinois as his right hand man, Frank Hays, of Belleville.

Whose Say-so Is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone and exclusively as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives.

Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to the above rule. Their claim to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their owners' and makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle-wrapper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

In favor of Dr. Pierce's medicines is the frank, confiding, open, honest statement of their full composition, giving every ingredient in plain English, without fear of successful criticism and with confidence that the good sense of the afflicted will lead them to appreciate this honorable manner of confiding to them what they are taking into their stomachs when making use of these medicines.

WHAT THEY CURE. People often ask "What do Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines—'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription' cure?" Briefly, the answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative, or blood-purifier, and tonic, or invigorator, and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder curing a large percentage of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous diarrhea), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections, it is generally successful in affecting cures. In fact the "Golden Medical Discovery" is without doubt, the most successful constitutional remedy for all forms of catarrhal diseases known to modern medical science. In Chronic Nasal Catarrh Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid should be used for washing and cleansing out the nasal passages while taking the "Discovery" for its blood cleansing and specific, healing effects upon the mucous lining membranes. This combined local and general treatment will cure a very large percentage of the worst cases of chronic nasal catarrh, no matter of how many years' standing they may be.

As to the "Favorite Prescription," it is advised for the cure of one class of diseases only—those weaknesses, derangements and irregularities peculiar to women. It is a powerful, yet gently acting, invigorating tonic and nerve, which are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. What is said of their power to cure the several diseases for which they are advised may be easily learned by sending your name and address to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet which has been compiled, containing copious extracts from numerous standard medical books, which are consulted as authorities by physicians of the several schools of practice for their guidance in prescribing. It is FREE TO ALL. A postal card request will bring it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." They are the original Little Liver Pills first put up by Dr. Little, over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equaled. They are tiny sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

'Twill Help You

Woman's Relief

Cardui, the woman's remedy, has been known for many years as "Woman's Relief," since it has positively proven its great value in the treatment of womanly diseases.

'Twill help you, if you are a sufferer from any of the ills peculiar to women which can be reached by medicine. Why? Because it has done that for many thousands of other sick women, as grateful letters from them, received every day, clearly describe. Because its ingredients are exclusively vegetable, and contain no mineral or poisonous drugs.

For headache, backache, pressing-down pains, nervousness, irritability, and other symptoms of general female weakness, Cardui has been found quick and safe relief.

Mrs. R. L. Denney, of Huntsville, Ala., writes: "I think Cardui is far ahead of anything for weak women. It does me more good than any medicine I have ever taken. I cannot praise it too highly. I think it is the best woman's medicine on earth." Sold everywhere. Try it.

"Twas 'Rousing,' Not 'Rising."

The Democrat-Sentinel yesterday stated that the letter printed on page 8, endorsing Rev. J. M. Rudy, was adopted by the unanimous standing vote of the congregation Sunday night. This was not correct. The news was phoned to this office, the lady imparting the information stating that the letter was adopted by a "rousing vote." The word "rousing" was mistaken for "rising," and thus it was that the slight inaccuracy occurred.

Notice to Rock and Gravel Road Contractors.

A FESTIVAL OF "SPOOKS"

ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDING OF MODERN SPIRITUALISM, THIS IS.

WORK OF THE FAMOUS FOX SISTERS

Was Sixty Years Ago Today That They Held Their First Converse With the Spirits—Many Fake Mediums.

New York, March 31.—This is a fete day for the spooks. In New York and throughout the country today many thousands of humans are celebrating the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of modern spiritualism. And, if the mediums are to be believed, there is also great rejoicing among the countless millions of spirits, mahatmas and guides of the spirit land. It was just sixty years ago today that the famous Fox sisters are alleged to have held their first converse with the spirits, and so founded a sect that has its devotees and its churches and temples in nearly every city in the land.

That spiritualism today is not as strong in membership and influence as it was two decades ago is generally admitted. The national organization, while still in existence, lacks the militant spirit that characterized its earlier propaganda. Fake mediums have done much to bring spiritualism into disrepute. Twenty or twenty-five years ago the cult reached high tide in this country. Many colonies were established in various parts of the country, including the famous spiritualist town of Liberal, Mo., founded by Col. G. H. Walser, a prominent Missouri lawyer, as a Mecca for true believers in the cult. In its character and essence, too, spiritualism has changed greatly since the days of the Fox sisters. The original spiritualists were recruited mainly from the ranks of the free-thinkers, men and women who were "at outs" with the church and held the Bible in abhorrence. Latter day spiritualism founds churches, ordains preachers, quotes Scripture and seeks to cover itself with the mantle of orthodoxy.

The spiritualists of today claim to be religious. They worship God in their meetings, preach faith from their rostrums and those who are true to the belief attempt to live moral and helpful lives. But the great interest at this particular time centers about that simple family in New York state that is given credit for having borne this new "message" to the world.

Hydesville was a hamlet, and even at that, the family did not live "in town." On a farm two miles out stood one of those story and a half houses, with windows made up of many small panes of glass, having a lean-to kitchen and a latch string that always hung out.

It was quite a family that lived under that roof, but it remained for three girls, the eldest not yet 16 and the youngest a mere child, to communicate with the spirits. One of them, Leah, the oldest of the trio, has written a book of her experiences, and in this volume is told the whole story of how the three began their communications with the spirit world.

Before beginning the story of their adventures, it may be well to state that persons living in that part of New York state—the very old ones—remember John D. Fox, the revered father of the girls. He was known as a devout Methodist, and never thought of giving "good night" to the members of the household without having prayers.

Those who remember him, or who know him by reputation are willing to stake their own reputation on his veracity, and none doubts that what he has told of the manifestations under his roof are true. The same faith extends to the members of his family, because "to have been reared by that good man was to have truth instilled into one's soul."

Shortly after the family moved into the farm house near Hydesville, according to the story given to the public, frequent rappings resounded in all parts of the house. Principally these were heard at night, but when no heed was paid to them they became more bold and were heard in the daytime. It was a favorite trick of the spirits, reads the narrative, to rap on the chair at which Mr. Fox knelt in prayer, and later to rock it violently, only to cease when he had finished his prayer.

But modern American spiritualism dates its existence from the night of March 31, 1848, when, according to the recital of Mrs. Fox, the mother, her youngest child, Katie, said: "Mr. Spittfoot, do as I do," clapping her hands. The sound instantly followed. Then Margaretta, the next oldest, said:

"Now do as I do; count one, two, three, four," striking one hand against the other at the same time, and the raps came as before.

This aroused Leah, the eldest, and she then conversed with the spirit. The net result of the talk was to learn that it was the spirit of a man who had resided there, had been slain and had been buried in the cellar. To make sure, excavations were made in the cellar and a few human bones were found, with evidences that limestone had been about them. Then there was unfolded the tale of the murder, the man having mysteriously disappeared. None of these facts, the Fox family declared, were known to them.

But this seems to have been but an introduction, if the tales told by the girls are to be believed—and their old acquaintances swear by them. More and noisier spirits came, and, although efforts were made to discourage the visitations, they would not desist. With each effort to stop the intrusion they became stronger, apparently, for they actually began persecutions. Beds were tossed about the rooms, heavy pieces of furniture were moved about, the family was not permitted to eat in peace.

Finally, for some reason which seemed impossible to explain, Leah was prompted to get a large alphabet, and, by pointing to letters and having them identified by raps on the table, had spelled out to her this message:

"Dear friends, you must proclaim these truths to the world. This is the dawning of a new era and you must not try to conceal it any longer. When you do your duty God will protect you, and good spirits will watch over you."

Even after that it was sought to evade the spirits and to remain at home, but again came the great disturbances, and, finally, says the narrative, it was decided to try communication with the spirit world in the presence of others.

The first public appearance of the sisters was at Rochester, where many of the prominent people of the city made many investigations in an effort to solve the "mystery." To all of these the phenomena seemed remarkable, and all declared it was not "fake."

After Rochester came Albany and Troy, and while in Troy, it is written, Margaretta was threatened with bodily harm, but even this, like other troubles, was overcome by some power not human.

Next came New York City. Here, it seems, there were great demonstrations, the manifestations having been witnessed for nearly three years. Noted men, among them William Cullen Bryant and other literary celebrities, attended the seances and were puzzled. Finally, they were given messages that made them believe. Physicians sought to explain the phenomena by scientific theories, but even they, according to quotations from New York papers, failed. Lawyers, judges and the most highly educated in other classes called, all going away in amazement.

Rochester again became the scene of action, and there the sisters had some wonderful experiences with physicians and editors. But it remained for Buffalo to give them the roughest reception. Here the Commercial Advertiser, says the book, sought in every possible way to discredit them. Professors Lee, Flint and Conventry, all on the faculty of the University of Buffalo, and the former also editor of the Medical Journal, published in that city, had published a long statement, in which they asserted the rappings were made by a movement of the knee joint. This statement later, history tells plainly, was cast aside as no part of the solution.

From here Cleveland, O., and other points in that state were visited on special invitation. Then came again New York and finally Boston, where the Harvard professors and the Unitarian ministers are declared to have tried in vain to solve the "mystery."

MADE FROM S.S.S. ROOTS AND HERBS A SAFE AND RELIABLE BLOOD PURIFIER

In the time of our forefathers the forests and fields were the only laboratories from which they could procure their medicines. They searched out and compounded the different roots, herbs and barks into remedies, many of which have been handed down to succeeding generations, and continuously used with satisfactory results. Among the very best of these old time preparations is S. S. S., a medicine made entirely from roots, herbs and barks, in such combination as to make it the greatest of all blood purifiers. This absolute vegetable purity of S. S. S. makes it the one medicine that may be used without fear of harmful results in any way. Most blood medicines on the market contain mercury, potash, or some other strong mineral. These act with bad effect on the system, upsetting the stomach, interfering with the digestion, affecting the bowels, and when used for a prolonged period of time often cause salivation. No such effects ever result from the use of S. S. S., and it may be taken by children as safely as by older people. For Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Malaria, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, and all other troubles caused by impure or poisoned blood, S. S. S. is a perfect remedy. It goes down into the circulation and removes all poisons, impurities, humors or unhealthy matter, and makes the blood pure and rich. It eliminates every particle of the taint of inherited blood trouble, purifies and strengthens the weak, deteriorated blood, and establishes the foundation for good health. S. S. S. is Nature's Blood Purifier, and its many years of successful service, with a steadily increasing demand for it, is the best evidence of its value in all blood troubles. YOU CAN MAKE A SHARP, CLEAN SAVING OF $100, BESIDES YOU MAKE ONE OF THE SAFEST PIANO INVESTMENTS IN THE WORLD.

A number of used Upright pianos of well-known makes for $148, $168, $198.
Terms, $10 to $15 cash; balance $4 to $5 a month.

The pianos and piano players we still can't help but interest you. They have been the public choice for over a quarter of a century. One cannot form a correct idea of what a really high-grade artistic piano is until you have seen, heard and examined our instruments. The names "Starr," "Richmond," "Chase," "Remington," Upright pianos, the "Starr," "Richmond" and "Chase" Player pianos, we think, are strong enough magnets to draw you to our store room.

Our prices and terms cannot be duplicated elsewhere, if it is quality you are considering. A comparison of other pianos will amply demonstrate this fact. In buying direct from us as manufacturers a saving of the middlemen's profit is effected, thus making them easily with in the reach of all. Every piano fully guaranteed for five years against any imperfection of material used and workmanship. This guarantee is backed by an investment of $2,000,000. Old instruments taken in exchange as part payment for new.

Railroad fares refunded in full to cut-of-town buyers. Write for catalogue. We ship pianos everywhere. Whether you wish to spend $217 or $1,000 for your piano, to pay cash or to arrange for very easy terms of payment, you will be equally welcome to our store room. A visit incurs no obligation to purchase. Remember, only 100 new Upright Pianos will be sold at introductory cut prices. COME TOMORROW; DON'T WAIT! DON'T DELAY!

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

SPRING REPAIR WORK SOON TO CALL FOR AMERICAN LABORERS.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Within the next sixty days the railroads, it is said, must find many thousands men to repair roads, bridges, furnish up sagging tracks, build extensions and man the shops. The winter months have left much work to be done, and it must be done speedily, for the railway managers admit they see signs of improving business and must have their lines and equipment in condition to care for it.

Americans will be given the preference. Heretofore it has been impossible to get Americans as laborers, because they were engaged in more profitable employment and work more to their liking. Furthermore, they do not care to associate with the motley gangs that usually go to make up the repair squads.

Now that many men are out of employment, it is hoped to get a large percentage of Americans. Formerly 30 per cent of the laborers employed in the spring work were Italians on roads between the seaboard and the Rocky Mountains. West of the mountains, especially on the Hill lines, Japanese were employed. In the southwest Mexicans, Indians and Italians predominate.

The Roses Are in Bloom.

R. A. McDonald, former electrician at the Missouri Pacific shops in this city, now working at Smithville, Tex., writes the Democrat-Sentinel to renew his subscription for another three months.

The weather is fine and the roses are in bloom in Smithville, according to Mr. McDonald's letter.

Suit for Damages Filed.

J. L. Cartwright, through Attorneys Longan, Shortridge and Powell, late yesterday filed suit in the Pettis county circuit court for $420.42 damages against the M. K. & T. and Merchants Terminal Railway association for failure of defendants to deliver stock to the stock yards on time.

THE JURY STOOD 4 TO 2

"Intimidation" Case Before Justice Willis E. Taylor.

The case of the state against Thos. N. Steele, tried before Justice W. E. Taylor at Longwood yesterday, resulted in a hung jury, and will be tried again, though the date has not yet been set.

The state closed at 5 o'clock. Judge Longan, for the defense, placed six or eight citizens on the stand, who testified to the good character of the defendant, no other evidence being offered.

Judge Longan for the defense and W. D. Steele for the state made short talks to the jury and at 6 o'clock the case was submitted.

After deliberating about an hour the jury reported to the court that they could not agree upon a verdict and were discharged. It was well understood that the jury stood four for acquittal to two for conviction.

Court was held in the public school building and the house was packed to its full limit, showing the great interest taken in the case in the northern part of the county.

The defendant was released on his old bond, signed by J. J. Daniel and Joe Sterling, and will be tried again when the attorneys agree on a date.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT

Tulsa Girl Claims Wealthy Oil Man Deceived Her.

Tulsa, Ok., March 31.—Charging that he represented himself to be an unmarried man and that she did not learn the truth until a few days before their prospective marriage, Miss Zee Metcalf has entered suit for breach of promise in the district court against W. T. Brown, a wealthy oil man.

In her petition Miss Metcalf states their courtship began while she was employed at the Brady hotel, cigar stand. Brown, she relates, was one of her most frequent customers, and took occasion while at the counter to lay siege to her heart, which in time she gave to him, only to have her dream of married felicity rudely dispelled by the knowledge her admirer was a man of family.

Miss Metcalf asks the court for $17,000.

BREWERY STRIKE TO END?

Employers Yield to Most of the Demands of the Workmen.

St. Louis, March 31.—The brewers yielded to most of the demands of their striking employes yesterday and the indications are that the men will return to work at once.

The Central Trades and Labor union last night almost unanimously ratified the agreement reached during the afternoon by the brewers and delegates representing the strikers.

It was referred to the brewery workers' organization with the recommendation that they also ratify it. The striking brewery workers will meet today.

The brewers agree to restate without discrimination all former employees.

Branch Postoffice Out East.

Postmaster E. E. Codding received an order yesterday to establish a postal station in the Otis W. Smith drug store, 503 South Engineer avenue, for the transaction of money order and registry business and for the sale of postal supplies.

The office will be opened on May 1 and will be in charge of Mr. Smith, whose salary for managing the place will be $100 per annum.

HORNE TAKEN TO ASYLUM

The Case for Shooting O. D. Woodward Is Dismissed.

Kansas City, Mo., March 31.—Gen. Richard C. Horne, who was acquitted last week of the charge of murdering H. J. Groves, managing editor of the Kansas City Post, was yesterday taken to St. Joseph and will be placed in the state asylum for the insane. Horne was acquitted of the murder of Groves on the plea that he was insane at the time of the shooting.

Another charge pending against Horne, that of assault with intent to kill O. D. Woodward, a theatrical manager and president of the Post company, was dismissed.

$100.00 paid by Dr. Shoop for any recent case of gripe or acute cold that a 25 cent box of Preventives will not break. How is this for an offer? The doctor's supreme confidence in these Little Candy Cold Cure Tablets—Preventives—is certainly complete. It's $100 against 25 cents—pretty big odds. And preventives, remember, contain no quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh nor sickening. Pneumonia would never appear if early colds were always broken. Safe and sure for feverish children. 48 Preventives 25c. W. E. Bard Drug Co.
